

Museum Tours

For people with early stage dementia

WHAT: These museum tours are free for individuals with early stage dementia, to visit local museums with their care partners to discover exhibitions together through interactive guided tours.

WHO: Individuals with early stage dementia and their care partners.

WHEN: Varied by museums, tours may be held monthly or every other month throughout the year. Please contact the museum or Lan Trinh for upcoming tour dates and times.

WHERE: Currently, tours are held at Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco: de Young & Legion of Honor, Oakland Museum of California, Cantor Arts Center and Anderson Collection.

RSVP: Pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, contact Lan Trinh at 800.372.9982 or ltrinh@alz.org.

Artful Discoveries

de Young Museum

50 Hagiwara Tea Garden Dr.
San Francisco, CA 94118

Artful Discoveries

Legion of Honor Museum

100 34th Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94121

California Encounters

Oakland Museum of California

1000 Oak St.
Oakland, CA 94607

Conversations at the Cantor

Cantor Arts Center

328 Lomita Drive
Stanford, CA 94305